

OUR MISSION

The Central Ontario Musicians' Association, Local 226 of the Canadian Federation of Musicians/American Federation of Musicians is the Professional Association for musicians in Central Ontario. The Central Ontario Musicians' Association received the charter as the area of Central Ontario Local of the AFM on January 3, 1906.

We are a member driven association of over 400 professional musicians. You will hear our musicians when ever you listen to music from concert halls, theatres, night clubs, at private engagements, on radio, television, film and recordings of all variety.

Dedicated to the development of musical talent and skills, the Central Ontario Musicians' Association has for more than 100 years fostered the opportunity through the collective efforts of our members for professional musicians to live and work in dignity.

AN OVERVIEW OF WHAT WE DO

Joining the Central Ontario Musicians' Association (C.O.M.A.) is one important step towards a successful professional career. C.O.M.A. understands that musicians are independent business people as well as creative artists and we are here to help you succeed. Our experience, exemplary customer service and support can help you achieve your goals. We will assist you with any and all questions you may have enroute to achieving your dreams as a professional musician.
